MAKING NEAR SURRENDER

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Warrenton, April 8.—The enemy occupied the station at Fourteen Streams and the British were obliged to shell them last night. Today they used their big gun ineffectually. Rifle fire was exchanged all day, the British finally silencing the Boer fire with Lyddite shells.

Boers Investing Bloemfontein

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

London, April 9.—When it is borne in mind that all the dispatches from the front are severely censored there is little in the news to bring satisfaction to England. Assurance that nothing need be feared, even if the railways and telegraphs are cut and Bloemfontein isolated, together with the news that the women and other civilians are being ordered away, do not augur well.

There are rumors from Cape Town that the telegraph wires were already cut yesterday (Sunday) and also that the hussars, who were sent to the relief of the Royal Irish rifles, are also missing.

Whole Free State in Arms

The attempt of General Colville to catch the Boer leaders in conference at Reitfontein failed probably, as usual, because of the lack of cavalry.

The results of these serious checks to the British arms is that the whole Free State is up again and that the Boers are full of activity over the entire field.

A belated Boer dispatch says that bayonets are being made for the foreign legion under the late General De Villiers Marouil.

The Boers are boasting that the Colesberg and Stormberg commandos, numbering 6,000, with ten cannon and 750 wagons, have gotten safely through thus performing a magnificent strategic feat.

Making Near to Surrender.

Making was still besieged on April 1. The garrison was suffering severely from lack of bread and a mixture of oats, bran and mealies was doing duty for that article, which is described as "coarse in substance, of the color of ginger bread and the consistency of Norway pine."

The Boers are displaying increased activity in Natal but there is no sign that General Buller is moving.

The American scout Burnham testifies to the terrific pace with which the Boer commandos cover the ground and the ease with which they move their guns.

NATAL MENACED BY THE BOERS

Commandos Reported to Be Pouring Through the Passes.

London, April 9.—Natal again is gravely menaced by the Boers. Commandos are reported to be pouring through the passes and to be advancing with transports and guns in the direction of Gen. Buller's army. In Ladysmith it is believed that the invigorated Boer forces mean either to attack the British at once or to scatter over Natal in such a manner as to render any northward movement by Gen. Buller extremely hazardous. According to reports which continue to come in, the burghers in the Orange Free State are still digging up their rifles and rejoining the allied fighting forces. Even the most sanguine of London military writers are beginning to acknowledge that the apparent joy with which the Orange Free-Statens accepted deliverance from the domination of the Transvaalers was purely fictitious. There are rumors from Cape Town that the telegraph wires were already cut and also that the hussars, who were sent to the relief of the Royal Irish rifles, are also missing. The attempt of Gen. Colville to catch the Boer leaders in conference at Reitfontein failed probably, as usual, because of the lack of cavalry. The results of these serious checks to the British arms is that the whole Free State is up again and that the Boers are full of activity over the entire field. A belated Boer dispatch says that bayonets were being made for the foreign legion under the late Gen. De Villiers Marouil. The Boers are boasting that the Colesberg and Stormberg commandos, numbering 6,000, with ten cannon and 750 wagons, have gotten safely through, thus performing a "magnificent strategic feat." The Boers have demanded Gen. Brabant's surrender after a fierce attack on his column at Weponer on the Basuto border. Thus far Gen. Brabant has refused to comply with the demand. A brother of President Steyn was captured in the neighborhood of Karee siding yesterday. F. R. Burnham, the American scout serving with Gen. Roberts, was captured by the Boers near the Bloemfontein waterworks, but he escaped from his captors when they were ten miles from Winburg, to which place the Boers were hastening, as they expected that an attempt would be made to recapture their prisoners.

DENY DR. ADAMS WILL RESIGN

University of Wisconsin Deans Discredit a Current Rumor.

Madison, Wis., April 9.—The story that President Adams of the University of Wisconsin intends to resign appears to have its foundation in some one's imagination. President Adams is now at Hot Springs, Va., where he went a week or two ago with Mrs. Adams to recuperate after his severe illness.

Deans E. A. Birge, E. E. Bryant, J. B. Johnson and W. A. Henry, with Secretary E. S. Riley of the board of regents, say that they know nothing of such an intention of the president. "I have heard nothing of such a report. I hope it is not true," says Dean Henry's reply to a question, and the others expressed themselves in the same terms.

Another feature of the report is that Senator W. F. Vilas is likely to succeed President Adams.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON MILWAUKEE ROAD

Stock Train Strikes a Buggy Near La.

Crosse—One Killed and Others Injured.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

La Crosse, Wis., April 9.—An east bound Milwaukee stock train struck a buggy at Bangor, hurling Annie Arenz into eternity instantly and breaking the legs, arms and collarbone of James Merlo. His injuries are so serious that it is feared he cannot live. A third occupant of the vehicle jumped and narrowly escaped death. They were hurled eighty feet and the body of the young woman was horribly mangled.

MEET CONTRACTORS HERE TOMORROW

Officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company Arrive Here This Evening.

Bids for grading the new line of railroad to be brought into Janesville by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company, will soon be received. This evening officials of the road are expected in the city, and from here will drive over the surveyed road tomorrow in company with numerous contractors who will bid on the work.

PLAGUE IS DECLINING.

Cost of Fighting the Scourge Estimated at $2,000,000.

San Francisco, April 9.—Honolulu advices dated March 31, received by the Doric, are as follows: It is estimated that the cost of fighting the plague will reach at least $2,000,000, a large part of these expenses having been incurred in finding homes for the people who were burned out by the fires, particularly the great conflagration on Jan. 20. Heavy expense has been incurred in building the detention camps that have been put up and for provisions of the people kept in them. The salaries of physicians, at $250 per month, also make up a considerable part of the payroll, and there have been a number of paid inspectors, fumigators, heads of departments, etc.

Eight hundred Japanese residents of Honolulu, who were burned out in the Chinatown fire on Jan. 20, have petitioned the government to exempt them from taxes for the year 1900. The steamship Noana arrived here yesterday from Sydney, without a bill of health. Health Officer Woods made a complaint to the executive council regarding the failure of the colonies to give the rule that vessels without bills of health shall not be received here at all may be enforced.

AT CLARKVILLE NEXT YEAR

Southern Wisconsin Teachers Elect Officers at Racine and Go Home

Racine, Wis., April 9.—The convention of the Southern Wisconsin Teachers' association concluded at 12 o'clock Saturday. The executive committee decided to hold the next convention at Clarksville, Wis. When the session was called to order at 9 o'clock Saturday morning by President Nattress the first business was to elect officers, and the following were selected to fill the positions:

President—H. C. Bell, Whitewater.
First Vice President—A. H. Hollis, Broadland.
Second Vice President—Miss Della Nabers, West Bend.
Secretary—J. H. Thompson, Belmont.
Treasurer—W. H. Strong, Burlington.
Reporter—Prof. D. E. Hubbard, Racine.
Executive Committee—W. H. Cheever, whose term as member of the executive committee expired, was re-elected.

Mrs. Charles Spencer of Stevens Point, is in the city, called here by the death of her mother, Mrs. Bowerman.

SCOFIELD HAS NOT CHANGED HIS MIND

SAYS HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNORSHIP.

An Effort Being Made in Milwaukee to Induce the Governor to Stand for a Renomination—Peck a Candidate for Congress in the Fourth District.

Madison, Wis., April 9.—There was a conference of state officials at the Plater House Saturday afternoon with reference to the republican nomination for governor. Notwithstanding his repeated statements that he will not be a candidate, Governor Scofield is being urged by his friends to run again.

None of those at the conference would admit that it was for the special purpose of bringing the governor again into the field, but there was a great amount of gossip about the desirability of having the governor make the run the third time.

The result of the Milwaukee election on last Tuesday has given courage to some of the forces which are desirous of having Governor Scofield the candidate, and it is expected a definite statement will be given out this week.

Scofield Again Says No.

Madison, Wis., April 6.—Is Governor Scofield a candidate for renomination? This is a question other candidates and many republican politicians are asking.

Reports come from Milwaukee that at a meeting of several republicans of influence in Milwaukee on Saturday, renewed pressure was brought to bear on the governor to change his expressed determination not again to be a candidate.

In response to a direct query last night Gov. Scofield reiterated his statement, made several months ago, that he is not a candidate for renomination. He said that he stands where he has stood since the time he first announced his determination not to be a candidate.

Peck a Candidate for Congress.

Madison, Wis., April 9.—Ex-Governor George W. Peck has discontinued the publication of the Sun which he revived as an experiment a few months ago. He is a full-fledged candidate for congress in the Fourth district no matter who receives the republican nomination and the democrats are a unit in favor of him. Mr. Peck, who is the chairman of the democratic state central committee, yesterday said: "The state central committee will meet Tuesday to fix the date for holding the state convention for the selection of delegates to the national democratic convention. I hear talk about holding the convention early in June and also late in May, but personally I have no preference. I know nothing about any talk about sending Mayor Rose to the convention as a delegate-at-large."

BIG BROOKLYN FIRE. LOSS IS $700,000

Six Men Were Overcome by Smoke But Were Secured in Time to Save Their Lives.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

New York, April 9.—Four blocks of buildings at Green Point, occupied by the Smith's Manufacturing Company, Post & McCorn Iron Works, Alexander Cullum Coal & Lumber Company, Brooklyn Oil Works, Dwight Church & Company and Peffer's Wood yards were burned this morning. Loss $700,000. Six men were overcome by smoke and were rescued.

TRACKED BY BLOODHOUNDS.

Sylvester Steel Shot and Killed by William Davis, Who Confesses.

Auburn, Ind., April 9.—Sylvester Steel was shot and killed at the home of Charles Smith, ten miles east of this city, not far from Hicksville, Ohio. William Davis, whose home is in Hicksville, was arrested and confessed the crime. Last summer Davis met with an accident and was cared for at the Smith home, his wife coming there to nurse him. Davis declared Steel was attempting to win the affections of Mrs. Davis. Steel, who lived at the Smith home, reached the place after nightfall, having walked from Hicksville, and as he entered the door a shot was fired. Steel entered the house and exclaimed, "I am shot," and died in his chair. The authorities at Hicksville were notified and bloodhounds were taken to the scene. They at once found a track and followed it to the door of William Davis in Hicksville. The sheriff arrested Davis, who offered no resistance and made a confession.

MILES, TOO, A CANDIDATE.

The General Is Willing to Lead the Democrats Against McKinley.

New York, April 9.—The World says that Gen. Nelson A. Miles is willing to be the Democratic nominee for president. He has so stated to his friends and ten days ago he visited William C. Whitney to talk with him about the possibility of his being nominated. Mr. Whitney told the general that all the leading gold Democrats were as much opposed to the nomination of Bryan now as they were when he was named four years ago, but he did not commit himself to the support of the general.

FILIPINOS WAGING MORE ACTIVE WAR

HOT SKIRMISHES REPORTED FROM VARIOUS PLACES.

Generals Young and Bell, Commanding in Luzon, Ask More Troops—Insurgents are Returning and Murdering the Amigos—Still Hunt Being Made for Aguinaldo.

Manila, April 9.—Reports of encounters between the American troops and the insurgents continue to arrive from many points.

On Friday Captain Sturgis, while reconnoitering, struck an insurgent outpost on the Nevaliches road, five miles distant from Manila, killing two and capturing ten. All were in full uniform. Unfortunately, Captain Sturgis' force was not large enough to pursue the main body.

A detachment of the Forty-second infantry, while scouting in Laguna province, was pursued by the insurgents and obliged to take refuge in a church at Pao, where the Americans repelled the rebels until reinforcements arrived. Lieutenant Gordon, with a company of the Sixteenth infantry, while scouting near Aparri, Cagayan province, engaged 250 insurgents. Lieut. Gordon was wounded.

Loss Officers in Severe Fight.

A sergeant and a corporal of company I, Eighteenth infantry, were killed in a severe fight in Capiz province, island of Panay.

The insurgents made a night attack upon Calbayon, island of Samar. They killed the sentry, swarmed into the town, and searched the house of Major Gilmore, of the forty-third infantry, who was absent. They killed his cook, ultimately the Americans drove them out of town, killing four and capturing twelve.

General Young, commanding in North Luzon, has made several requests for reinforcements.

General Bell Calls for Aid.

General James Bell, who is commanding in southern Luzon, has made similar representations. He says his forces are inadequate, and that he merely holds a few towns, without controlling the territory.

The president of the town of Samal, province of Batang, Luzon, and another prominent native have been assassinated because they were known to be friendly to the Americans.

The president of another town has joined the insurgents because they had threatened to kill him if he did not.

Still Hunt For Aguinaldo

Washington, April 9.—The war department is making a still hunt for Aguinaldo. The department however, has not money enough at the command of its secret service to lay hands on the cunning head of the Filipino rebellion. A week ago he was reported at Hong Kong; later he was alleged to be at Singapore. One of the most startling reports about him, however, is received by mail from Manila to the effect that the insurgent leader has made several trips to Manila, where he appears now disguised as a beggar, now as an innocent peasant and again as a friar. So elusive has Aguinaldo been that one of the war department officials said some days ago that it would not be very surprising if Aguinaldo should be discovered one of these fine mornings in a silk hat and other things to match parading the streets of London or Paris.

MEL'S STEEL BARS LIKE WAX.

Edison Sees an Experiment That Develops 5,400 Degrees of Heat.

New York, April 9.—A temperature of 5,400 degrees Fahrenheit, in which a great bar of steel would melt like wax around a candlewick—this, it was announced by those who made the experiment in Thomas A. Edison's laboratory, at Orange, N. J., was generated by a new process. The experiment was made in Mr. Edison's presence by Louis Dreyfus of Frankfurt-on-Main, who wished to demonstrate to "The Wizard" the practicability of the process invented in Essen, Germany. The process consists in the combustion of a certain chemical compound, in connection with powdered aluminium. Dr. Dreyfus placed in a crucible a bar of steel six inches in length and half an inch in diameter. Placing around it a refulgent of his chemical and pouring on this a small quantity of the aluminium, he touched a match to the mass and in an instant it blazed up, throwing out an intense heat. In less than ten seconds the steel bar was completely melted. Mr. Edison was delighted at the results and said the process was what he had been in search of for a long time. He ordered a quantity of the chemical for further experiments. Mr. Dreyfus said the process was now being used in the welding together of steel rails.

Ship Iranian Is Wrecked.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Yokohama, April 9.—The British sailing ship Iranian, New York to Yokohama, has been wrecked. Sixteen of the crew are saved. The captain's boat is missing.

A CERTAIN business man tried our want column a few days ago without expecting any results, but was surprised to receive nearly two dozen answers to his little ad.

STATE FAIR AT MILWAUKEE

The $150,000 Promised Will be Raised by the Business Men.

Milwaukee, April 9.—All but $1,800 of the $15,000 promised by Milwaukee business men as a fund to aid the state fair had been raised yesterday. A. L. Vannaman, chairman of the finance committee, believes that when the local advisory board meets with the board of managers of the state fair at the rooms of the Merchants' association tomorrow afternoon, it will be able to report that all the money promised is on hand, so that preparations for the next fair may proceed immediately.

SPRING GREEN MAN MISSING

Nothing Seen of Him After He Drew Money from Bank

Monroe, Wis., April 9.—George P. Zimmerman, a farmer of Spring Green, has mysteriously disappeared, and Sheriff John Gardner is searching for him. Zimmerman was administrator of the estates of David Klass and his wife Amelia Klass, and $4,704.66, the amount of money in his hands belonging to the estates, is also missing.

DEATH LIST WILL PROBABLY REACH 50

Wreck of the Austin, Texas, Dam Is Complete—Thousands of Cattle Were Drowned.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Austin, Tex., April 9.—The flood situation grows worse. The lives of the inhabitants of San Saba, Llano, and Burnt Halley are endangered. Thousands of animals perished, one farmer losing seven hundred cattle. The list of dead is increasing hourly, and will probably reach fifty now.

Fully 30,000 people gathered at the dam and power house station north of this city today to view the ruins of the plant which cost this city more than a million dollars a few years ago. The wreck of the power house is complete, and the situation in the city is serious, as it will take several weeks to secure even a temporary water and light system. There is no fire protection, and the churches were unable to hold services last night for lack of light.

While the river is falling reports from the neighboring country are that everything is under water. Hundreds of cattle have been drowned and miles of fencing washed away.

The country tributary to the Colorado River all the way down the course is inundated, and while it is believed the worst is over the loss as estimated will exceed $3,000,000, counting Austin as the heaviest loser. A mass meeting has been called for this afternoon to take steps to relieve the situation.

NO CHANGES IN THE SENATE BILL

Porto Rico Measure Will Go Through the House as It Came From the Senate.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Washington, April 9.—Dr. Amada, representing the interests of Porto Rico, had a conference today with Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means committee, in the hope to prevail upon him to agree to some amendments in the bill. The original program to concur in the senate amendments and make no changes in the bill will be adhered to, however.

OSTHEIM SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENTAL.

Dead United States Artillery Officer Was Subject to Insomnia and Nightmare.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Chicago, April 9.—The coroner's jury in the case of Captain Louis Ostheim, first United States artillery, found dead in the Auditorium Annex, shot through the temple, and revolver lying under him, returned a verdict this morning of accidental shooting. Ostheim was to have been married today to Mrs. Eva Bruce Wood. The testimony showed that the Captain suffered from insomnia and nightmare. It is supposed that one of these spells he committed the deed.

Goebel Grand Jury Resumes.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Frankfort, April 9.—Forty witnesses of the one hundred summoned in the case of Goebel case have been heard by the grand jury so far. The sessions were resumed this morning. It is said the attorney for the defense has decided to ask for a change of venue to Bourbon county for the trials of all the Goebel suspects.

DEWEY REFUSES TO CONFIRM OR DENY

Story That Mrs. Dewey Has Left the Roman Catholic Church.

IS NOBODY'S BUSINESS

Seems to be a Fact However That She Has Determined to Change Her Faith.

POLITICAL VIEWS NOT READY

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Washington, April 9.—Dewey this morning refused to confirm or deny the report that his wife had left the Roman Catholic church to join the Episcopal church. He declared that his wife's religious belief was nobody's business.

He said the statement which he is preparing covering his views on public questions was not completed and he could not tell when it would be ready. The Deweys, today, are moving to Beauvoir for the summer.

Washington, April 9.—It is announced that Mildred Dewey, wife of Admiral Dewey, has left the Catholic church, which she joined a few years ago and in which her marriage to the admiral was celebrated.

The report that Mrs. Dewey has decided to attend hereafter St. John's Episcopal church was discussed eagerly at the latter church yesterday morning, where it was expected she would attend services with the admiral.

That Mrs. Dewey has determined to change her faith is, nevertheless, true, and the knowledge of it was whispered about from one to the other at St. John's church yesterday morning. All through the service there was a subdued excitement pervading the greater part of the congregation. Every time an usher passed down an aisle seating the crowd of strangers the regular pew holders leaned forward to see if the newcomers would include the admiral's wife. But the admiral's pew was vacant throughout the service. Not even the admiral was there.

Johnson Declines to Speak

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Chicago, April 9.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the democratic executive committee declines absolutely to discuss the possibility of ex-Senator White of California being Bryan's running mate, or a rumor connecting Robert Pattison of Pennsylvania, with the same proposition.

Dewey Plans Chicago Visit

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Washington, April 9.—Admiral Dewey received the Chicago delegation this morning and discussed plans for his trip to that city. He will leave Washington on April 29 and make no speeches en route. He was tendered the use of the private car of President Cowan of the B. & O., but declined to have a schedule of stops for speechmaking. He said he was going as a sailor and not as a politician.

New York Democrats Fight

New York, April 9.—The state committee of the Chicago platform democracy has issued a call for a state convention to be held at Albany, May 21, to elect delegates to the democratic national convention. Melville G. Palliser of 100 Williams street, a member of the committee, said today:

"We shall send a full delegation from this state to the Kansas City convention and demand admission as the only true representatives of the party from New York. We are not placing much faith in the avowed friendship of the regular democratic machine for Mr. Bryan and the issues he represents."

Bryan Consulting White

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Los Angeles, April 9.—William J. Bryan is the guest of Stephen M. White. It is reported they are in conference in regard to the latter accepting the vice-presidential nomination.

OBJECT TO A VOTE ON THE QUAY CASE.

Burrows, of Michigan, is in no Hurry to Bring the Matter to a Vote.

By Scripps-McRae Press Association.

Washington, April 9.—In the senate Chandler tried to secure unanimous consent for a vote on the Quay case Saturday at three o'clock. Burrows objected. Aldrich suggested two weeks from tomorrow at four o'clock. Burrows said an absent senator had wired that he wished to be present when an agreement was reached and that he would return tomorrow. Jones, Arkansas, objected saying that one day's delay would make no great difference.

The house passed the bill giving a pension of eight dollars per month to the pensionable survivors of the Mexican war whether on rolls or not at the time of passage of the original Mexican pension act in 1893.

JOHN M. WHITEHEAD IS THE MAN NEEDED

ENDORSEMENT OF HIS GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDACY.

Weekly Calumet Newspaper of Chilton, Wis., suggests his support by the Republicans of the Sixth District—Is a Leader in Tax Reform Movement.

The Weekly Calumet published at Chilton, Wis., in the Sixth Congressional District has the following endorsement in its issue of last week concerning the candidacy of Hon. John M. Whitehead for governor:

Of the many prominent men whose names have been mentioned as candidates for governor none has given us more satisfaction than that of John M. Whitehead, of Rock county. The many economies we have seen in the state press has led us to examine his record, and we must concede what is claimed for him is true. His sturdy integrity, his ability, his faithfulness as a legislator have made him a tower of strength that will not be easily overcome. Among the many tributes paid him we quote from the Madison State Journal: "His candidacy at this time is peculiarly felicitous if not urgent. He divides with Senator Stout the occupation of a vantage ground between and above factions which all good Republicans and all good citizens wish wiped out forever."

As a tax reformer he would proceed earnestly and in good faith that will satisfy the restless ill defined demands of the rank and file of citizens and judicious conservatism that cannot fail to command the respect of any railroad or any corporate institution unless it unfeignedly seeks to favor legislation with deceptions and intrigue. In the zenith of his manhood, skilled in state affairs, governed by personal motives of responsibility beyond those which animate less thoughtful and more crafty public men. All of the above we cordially endorse.

How well we remembered his staunch manhood and strength during the construction of anti pass legislation. How well we remember the condemnation he received from the "trimmers" who hoped to frame a law which could not be executed and would be non effective. To John M. Whitehead the people of Wisconsin are obligated for the efficient anti-pass law that is on the statutes today and not a loop hole for evasion.

There is one more piece of attempted legislation that goes to show how quick J. M. Whitehead can grasp a situation and line up on the side of justice. During the last few days in the legislature, the conservatives in the assembly formulated Joint resolution No. 45 A, which if it had become a law would have increased the treasury receipts $150,000 and there would have been talk of an extra session. The member from this county who had charge of the bill in the assembly says that while this bill increases the license fees of the railroads of the state $150,000, it was not to do an injustice to the same. The supporters of the measure reasoned that by wiping out the pass system in all of its ramifications the railroad receipts would be increased thereby from $300,000 to $500,000, therefore, in justice, the gainers should return in taxes $150,000 as they would not be in fact a dollar out.

While Senator Whitehead knew nothing of this movement until it came over to the Senate for concurrence and that while the Senate in consternation refused to concur, Senator Whitehead supported the measure. Of all legislation the levying of a just and equitable tax is the greatest as will be conceded by all who give the subject careful thought. It is evident that with a thought to get at the root of the subject so as to have some basis on which to formulate a tax system that would be just, is why Senator Whitehead championed the Tax Commission. We hope they will succeed and in the meantime give due credit to its author.

Our readers will remember that some time ago we had occasion to mention Senator Stout as desirable material for the governorship and now if the 6th congressional district has no favorite son we must say we may go further and fare worse if we fail to support J. M. Whitehead.

THE BOAAX KING OF AMERICA.

Francis M. Smith Formerly Made His Home in Janesville.

Francis M. Smith, the borax king of America and one of the wealthiest men on the Pacific coast, formerly made his home in Janesville and was educated at Milton college. He was born and reared on a farm in the town of Richmond, Walworth county.

He became, in 1862, a student in Milton academy, now Milton college, in Rock county, Wis., not over fifteen miles away from his boyhood home. In the three years previous his two brothers, Julius P. and Byron G., and his sisters, Ellie A. and Julia M., attended the institution and were registered as coming from the above mentioned town.

The brothers, older than himself, enlisted in 1862 in Wisconsin regiments and saw considerable hard service in the remaining years of the Civil war. After being mustered out of the army they made their residence for a time in Atlanta, Ga., and subsequently in Janesville. Francis, on becoming of age, started for the Pacific coast.

Accused of Sentencing Internal Machine.

Cincinnati, O., April 9.—Charles J. Figge and Dr. R. R. Baxton were arrested here charged with placing an internal machine Sunday night at the residence of George B. Cox, the republican leader of Hamilton county. Figge had been discharged as a clerk of the city board of administration and blamed Cox for his discharge. He had frequently threatened Cox's life. It is thought Figge is demented. Dr. Baxton, whose home is at Bedford, Ind., posed at police headquarters as an expert in mine explosives after the internal machine had been found on Cox's porch. He explained its operation to the police. The officers later found in Baxton's room what they call another internal machine.

Michael J. Sadowski Dead.

Chicago, April 9.—Michael J. Sadowski, managing editor of the National Polish Daily News, died at his home Sunday morning. He was born in Warsaw in June, 1857. He graduated from the Warsaw university as a lawyer and moved to this country in 1881. In 1887 he went to Buffalo, N. Y., where he edited the Polish Daily Echo. He was for three years postoffice superintendent at Buffalo. In 1895 he was elected general secretary of the Polish National alliance. He resigned that position last fall to become managing editor of the National Polish Daily News of this city.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth

Do so and use the old and well tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Savage Hair-Dressing.

Hair-dressing among savages is an art absolutely unequalled among civilized people, and the edifices erected on the heads of Africans and Fiji islanders are works of time and, like Rome, are not built in a day nor taken down in a night. From the island of Engano, near Sumatra, comes a curious head ornament. It is a bell-shaped cap of black wool, with a grotesque little figure of a man seated on top, with eyes of mother-of-pearl, the black inlaid with spots of the same substance.

An Encounter with a Mad Bull.

A telegram from Paris describes an encounter with a mad bull at Mont de Marsan. A woman was terribly injured, and an officer who went to her assistance with a drawn sword was tossed several yards and badly hurt. A sergeant charged the animal with a fixed bayonet, but was knocked down and trampled upon, being frightfully mangled. The bull next charged the village omnibus, killing both the horses. Several villagers, armed with rifles, at length succeeded in killing it.

DUCKS ON THEIR NESTING GROUNDS

NEW SHOOTING LAW IS BEING RIGIDLY ENFORCED.

This Spring the Northward Flight of Ducks and Geese Began Unusually Early—Shooting Season Closed Until Next September—Open Season for Brook Trout Begins April 15.

With the protection the game birds are receiving in Wisconsin this spring a manifest improvement in the shooting on the lakes and marshes frequented should be enjoyed next fall by sports men who are interested in the hunting clubs scattered through the state. This spring the northward flight of ducks and geese began unusually early, and where the warm weather has broken up the ice fields in the interior lakes and rivers there are thousands of birds resting from their tiring journey from Southern feeding grounds.

Spring Shooting Laws Enforced

The law passed by the Legislature of Wisconsin prohibiting spring shooting is being strictly enforced by the game wardens, whose vigilance has increased with the advent of warmer weather, and few violations have been reported, though a number of market hunters have been warned, and as a result are keeping away from the grounds where the ducks are plentiful.

Many Birds on Nesting Ground.

Reports received from Winnebago, Butte des Morts, Wolf river, Puckaway lake, the lakes in Waushara county, Green lake, Koshkonong, Horicon, Madison, and other nesting and feeding grounds indicate the largest spring flight of waterfowl experienced for a number of years. "All that is necessary at the present time," said a Janesville sportsman, "is to give the ducks a chance to nest this spring without being disturbed, and if the present law is operative for a few years there is sure to be the finest shooting that any man could desire."

Next Sunday the open season for Brook trout will begin in Wisconsin, and fishermen are preparing to visit the streams in the northern part of the state.

The Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. ROCK RIVER

Rock River, April 9.—F. I. Love of Coloma, Wis., is visiting friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Cole will begin school again next Monday. Miss Turlett of Milton is working for Mrs. Daisy Strauder. M. D. Gray began the delivery of mail over the rural route Monday. H. W. Green is quite sick with the grip. Jennie Rose began her school again Monday after a week's vacation. Grace and Henry Pierce and Clifford Bond who are attending school at Milton Junction are at home for a week's vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Milo Bliven of Edgerton were callers in this vicinity Friday. Elder Davis at Milton preached here last Sabbath as Mr. Van Horn has not yet returned from Iowa. N. M. Rose spent Friday and Saturday with his daughter, Mrs. T. V. Rogers of Whitewater. Visitors at church service this week were Mrs. Davis and sister, Mrs. Isham and Prof. Stillman of Milton; T. I. Lowe, of Coloma, Wis.; Mrs. Hull Mills, of Welton, Iowa; and R. E. Hull and granddaughters, of Otter Creek. Elder W. C. Whitford of Milton will preach at this place next Sabbath. Fred Green is working for E. D. Vincent by the month. Lottie Gray visited at Ft. Atkinson one day last week.

SOUTH TURTLE

South Turtle, April 9.—Mrs. Calvin Johnson, one of our old residents here has been on the sick list at her home in Clinton. The robins are here and farmers are beginning to think about spring work. Charles Benedict's many friends are glad to know that he is doing well, having had a successful operation at the Beloit hospital. Mrs. Oleson is now settled in her new home lately purchased of Mr. Ondell. Mr. Ondell has moved into one of Calvin Johnson's tenant houses for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins mourn the death of their youngest child from pneumonia. The funeral will be held on Tuesday. Rosetta Blazer came home from Madison on Saturday for a week's vacation.

SOUTH CLINTON.

South Clinton, April 9.—Clarence Dresser spent Sunday at home. Mrs. Charles Dresser was here Friday for the first time since last November. T. T. Nelson has rented his farm. James Waugh is now located on the John Murray farm, which he will work this season. Albert Marston of Turtle Center, spent a portion of his vacation here. Helen and Paul Dresser, who have had scarlet fever, are improving. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Benedict gave a dinner to some of their Clinton friends on last Friday. Mrs. George Adams of Manchester, Ill., was here recently.

BLIND PUPILS GAVE CONCERT

At the State School for the Blind on Saturday Evening

Saturday evening at the State School for the Blind forty pupils of that institution gave an entertainment that was not only a novel concert in itself but a well rendered and enjoyable one from start to finish. An audience that completely filled the large gymnasium assembled. The concert was entitled "The Cradle Songs of Many Nations."

The program was in keeping with the title. Eighteen vocal numbers were given. Those who participated were attired in costume to represent the various nationalities, such as Japanese, Indians, French, Italian, German, Scotch, Norwegian, Swede, negro, etc.

Every number received well merited applause. The pupils rendered each song in a way that purely demonstrated that they were heart and soul in their work. For several weeks past Misses Jeannette Beckwith and Elizabeth Abbott, teachers at the school, have worked hard for the success of the entertainment, and that they fully succeeded was the one opinion Saturday evening.

SERVICES OF PALM SUNDAY

Palms Were Blessed and Distributed Among the People

Holy week, the last before Easter, was ushered in at the churches yesterday with Palm Sunday services, which, as usual, were especially elaborate in the Catholic and Episcopal houses of worship. The festival is in special commemoration of Christ's entry into Jerusalem for the last time before the crucifixion, and the palms were made the chief symbol of the occasion, Christ having been greeted upon his coming to Jerusalem by the waving of palms by the people.

In the Catholic churches these palms were blessed, and then distributed to the congregations. In others they were given to those who desired them as souvenirs, while in some they were simply used as appropriate decoration.

Nathan Hale's Schoolhouse.

Nathan Hale's schoolhouse in New London, Conn., is attracting considerable attention at the present moment. The old house where he taught after leaving Yale College until the breaking out of the revolution, and where he made a patriotic speech to his scholars just before he joined the Continental army, is still standing, and the Connecticut society of the Sons of the American Revolution propose to purchase it and restore it to its former condition.

SENSITIVE WOMAN.

There is a wonderful little tropical plant, the mimosa or sensitive plant as it is called. The curious thing about it is that if you pinch any part of the root or the stem, all the delicate little branches and fragile leaves will curl up and shrink together as if they had been blighted with a sudden frost.

Woman's delicate and sensitive organism is remarkably like this little plant. If the very roots of a woman's life are injured or diseased, her whole being suffers, both physical and mental. She shrinks within herself and covers up her sufferings enduring all in silence as best she may.

"My son's wife had been for years a great sufferer, all broken down and very weak and nervous," says Mrs. Betsey M. White, of Stony-creek, Warren Co., N. Y. "She was troubled with all the pains and aches one so slender could endure. She took everything she heard of, hoping to get help, but in vain. The doctors said she could not live to have another child as she came near dying so many times. She tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it did wonders for her."

This spring she had a nice boy weighing eleven pounds; she got through before we could get anyone here. I was afraid she would not live. We cried for joy when we saw how nicely she got along. I cannot say enough in praise of your 'Favorite Prescription.' I never sent a recommendation of a medicine before. I hope all women will try it. May God bless you for the good you have done."

Any woman may write to R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., in absolute confidence. Her communication will be thoroughly and earnestly considered and she will receive sound, professional, fatherly advice (in a plain sealed envelope) free of charge.

THE TARIFF BILL STRUGGLE.

To Be Closed in the House of Representatives This Week.

NATIONAL TREASURY REPORT.

More Gold, More Silver and a Larger Total of Money in Circulation Than Ever Before—The Amount Is Now $26 Per Capita.

Washington, April 9.—The future of the week in the house will be the closing fight on the Puerto Rican tariff bill. The republican managers will carry out the program agreed upon in caucus on Wednesday, when a special rule will be presented which will bring the motion to concur in the senate amendments to a vote after several hours of debate. Both sides are laboring earnestly to poll their full strength, but the republicans appear to be confident that the motion will carry by a safe margin. They assert that the republican opposition will not be over seven votes, the number who voted against the original bill. Senator Chandler probably will make an effort to get the senate to agree upon a day for taking a vote on the resolution concerning the seating of Senator Quay. The committee on elections will conclude its consideration of the case of Senator Clark of Montana during the week.

The circulation statement issued by the treasury department for April 1 makes some remarkable disclosures. It shows that more money per capita, more gold, more silver and a larger total of money is in circulation at the present time than ever before. For the first time in the history of the country the per capita circulation has crossed the $26 line, and the year 1900 carried the total for the first time past the $2,000,000,000 line, while the amount of gold and gold certificates in circulation is larger than at the corresponding date of any previous year. The circulation statement shows the total money in circulation on April 1, 1900, to be $2,021,272,506, and on April 1, 1899, $1,927,846,942, while on the corresponding date in 1898 it was $1,756,058,645; on April 1, 1897, it was $1,609,000,694, and on April 1, 1896, $1,528,629,463. This shows an increase in total money in circulation in four years of $492,645,042, or 32 per cent. The per capita money in circulation, or the average amount for each individual, in the United States is also larger than ever before, being $26.12 (calculating the present population at 77,395,000), against $25.45 one year ago, $23.69 two years ago, $23.01 three years ago and $21.53 on April 1, 1896. The amount of gold in circulation is also greater than at the corresponding date of any preceding year, the total gold and gold certificates in circulation on April 1, 1900, being $785,845,549, against $727,748,591 on April 1, 1899; $618,448,941 on April 1, 1898; $554,582,096 on April 1, 1897, and $489,151,505 on April 1, 1896, the increase during the four years being $296,694,044, or 60 per cent. The silver in circulation, including standard silver dollars, subsidiary silver, silver certificates and treasury notes of 1890, which were issued for the purchase of silver bullion and are to be retired when the silver is coined and put in circulation, amounts to $631,133,639, against $626,982,304 on April 1, 1899; $610,661,729 on April 1, 1898; $569,024,775 on April 1, 1897, and $558,524,447 on April 1, 1896.

Stabbed by Unknown Man.
Peru, Ind., April 9.—A murderous assault was made upon Fred and Steve Titus, brothers and owners of a hotel and restaurant at the Union station at 3 a. m. Fred was stabbed twice in the back, the blade penetrating the kidneys and lungs, and his brother Steve was slashed across the back, the wound being deep and eighteen inches long, requiring twenty-six stitches to close. Fred will probably die, while the injuries to Steve are not necessarily fatal.

Gould Family Lawyer Dies.
Paris, April 9.—A curious story has just come to light respecting Count Boni Castellane's last return from America. It appears that he and the Countess were accompanied from the states by a legal representative of the Gould family, who had instructions to examine into Boni's debts and pay them, but not let him have the money to foot away. Soon after their arrival in Paris, however, the lawyer caught pneumonia and he has just died at the Grand hotel.

Darker Is the Choice.
Minneapolis, Minn., April 9.—The committee appointed by the populist state convention after three days of hard work concluded the canvass of the referendum vote for candidates for president and vice-president. Result: For president, Wharton Baker, 1,957; Ignatius Donnelly, 572; E. V. Debs, 123; Thomas E. Watson, 35; W. J. Bryan, 33; scattering, 10; total, 2,730.

For vice-president, Ignatius Donnelly won with 1,954.

Stiles Killed by Outlaws.
Tucson, Ariz., April 9.—It is reported that Billy Stiles, who liberated Alvord and Bravo Juan from the Tombstone jail, has been killed by the outlaws. Alvord's arrest was due to Stiles' efforts, and Stiles also testified against him. It is thought that Alvord feared to trust him. Mrs. Alvord is in Tucson. It is thought that Alvord has left Bravo Juan and will eventually Jointed Plasterer Wants $30,000.

Waterbury, Conn., April 9.—Mrs. Virginia Cottingham, a hairdresser, wants J. P. Dale, a traveling salesman for Swift & Co., Chicago, to put a $20,000 plaster over her broken heart. Mrs. Cottingham is middle aged and comes from Springfield, Mass., where she conducted a hairdressing parlor. She says she sold out her business at great loss, expecting marriage, and that she now feels the loss keenly and makes the claim for damages. Mr. Dale is considerably older than the plaintiff and has some means. His property in Springfield has been attached.

Plate Glass Men Organize.
Pittsburg, Pa., April 9.—The American Plate Mirror Company has been chartered at Harrisburg with a capital of $50,000,000. The company is composed of well-known plate glass men, who are identified with the Pittsburgh Glass Company, the Penn Plate Glass Company, the Standard Plate Glass Company and the Ford Plate Glass Company. The new combine is looked upon as the beginning of a determined move on the part of the American plate glass men to wrest the trade in this country for plate mirrors from foreign manufacturers.

Fight Over Mining Property.
Tucson, Ariz., April 9.—There is trouble over the Cobre Grande mine, just below the border line. Col. Kosterlitzki, gendarme of Sonora, arrived from there with a cavalry command, having been called upon to protect the property. The mine is operated by the Green Consolidated company, but was formerly owned by some people by the name of Costello. The Costellos are endeavoring to regain possession of it and have brought about the trouble.

Upholds Dr. Hill's Views.
Peoria, Ill., April 9.—The Rev. Frank G. Smith, the young pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church of this city, in a sermon, preaching on "The Conflict Between Truth and Error," declared himself as standing on that advanced line of thought taken by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis and the other reformers of the day. He vehemently attacked the old creed of predestination.

Many Honor Gen. Gomez.
Havana, April 9.—An elaborate demonstration took place here in honor of Gen. Maximo Gomez, and in consequence of the attitude adopted by him with respect to the reappearance of the autonomists in the political field. A secondary object of the promoters was to entreat him not to leave Cuba until the final stage of independence had been reached.

Famous Indian Chief Dies.
Nadeau, Kan., April 9.—Shough-nassee, the famous chief of the Pottawatomies, died here at the age of 90 and was buried in his dooryard, with Indian rites, by the side of his wife, who died a year ago. More than 100 Indians attended the funeral feast. Death was due to quick consumption, following an attack of grip last winter.

Italy's New War Minister.
Rome, April 9.—Count Ponza di San Martino has been appointed minister of war to succeed Gen. Mirri. It has been decided to immediately commence the construction of six armored 8,000-ton war ships of a new type.

HEALTHY OLD AGE SSS

tism, Eczema, Tetters, etc. It purifies and restores the blood to a healthy, normal condition, and makes it impossible for any poisonous waste materials to accumulate.

If you have an old running sore or an obstinate ulcer that refuses to heal, or are troubled with boils and carbuncles, try S. S. S. It never fails to make a quick and permanent cure of these pests. If your system is run down and you feel the need of a tonic, S. S. S. will strengthen and help you as it has many others to a happy, healthy old age.

S. S. S. cured Mr. H. Borden of Sausville, Va., of a case of Eczema of thirty-five years' standing, after the best physicians in the surrounding country had failed. This was seven years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.

If you are in doubt about your disease, and will send us a statement of your case, our physician will give you any information or advice wanted, for which we make no charge.

Book on Blood and Skin Diseases sent to any desiring it. Address Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

S. S. S. IS THE IDEAL TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER FOR OLD PEOPLE.

The majority of persons upon reaching middle age and past find their blood becomes weak and thin, and diseases that were easily controlled in earlier life begin to affect the constitution. Those predisposed to Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Gout and other hereditary troubles may escape till then, but as they age the blood, so long tainted and weakened by accumulated waste matters, is no longer able to properly nourish the body, and it becomes an easy mark for disease. At this critical period of life the blood must be re-enforced before it can perform its legitimate functions and rid the system of these poisons, and nothing so surely and effectually does this as S. S. S.

S. S. S. strengthens and enriches the blood, improves the appetite, and builds up the general constitution. It is not only the best blood purifier, but the best tonic for old people. It warms the blood, tones up the nerves, removes all taint from the blood, and prevents the development of disease.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood medicine known. Not one particle of mercury, potash or other mineral poison can be found in it, and it may be taken for any length of time without harm.

S. S. S. is the only remedy that reaches deep-seated blood troubles like Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Eczema, Tetters, etc. It purifies and restores the blood to a healthy, normal condition, and makes it impossible for any poisonous waste materials to accumulate.

If you have an old running sore or an obstinate ulcer that refuses to heal, or are troubled with boils and carbuncles, try S. S. S. It never fails to make a quick and permanent cure of these pests. If your system is run down and you feel the need of a tonic, S. S. S. will strengthen and help you as it has many others to a happy, healthy old age.

S. S. S. cured Mr. H. Borden of Sausville, Va., of a case of Eczema of thirty-five years' standing, after the best physicians in the surrounding country had failed. This was seven years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.

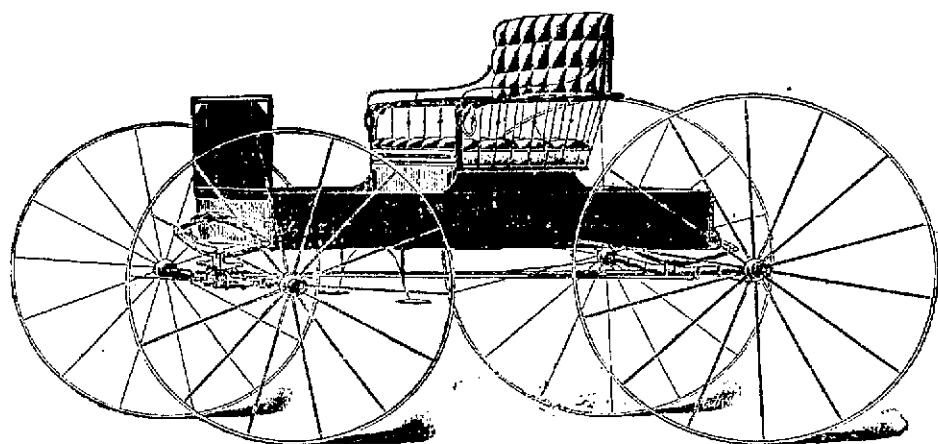

If you are in doubt about your disease, and will send us a statement of your case, our physician will give you any information or advice wanted, for which we make no charge.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.—About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddock insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee. It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer. Follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c and 25c."

PAYNE ON PORTO RICO.

In a communication to the Milwaukee Journal Henry C. Payne discusses a new sphere of the Porto Rico tariff question as follows:

"It seems to me that the so-called 'Porto Rican question' is not discussed in the newspapers with the calmness which befits the consideration of such an important issue. Much apprehension has arisen concerning the attitude of the president, owing to the declaration which he made in his message to Congress that it was 'our plain duty' to have free and unrestricted trade relations with Porto Rico.

"Certainly, the people must believe that the president, his cabinet, and nearly all Republican senators and members of Congress would not have arrived at different conclusions, unless after full and careful consideration of the subject they were convinced of the wisdom of a different course, and I feel quite sure that upon full, careful, candid discussion of the question, the republicans of the country will sustain, the administration and the republican senators and members of Congress in their present attitude. Certainly the question of the tariff changes proposed is not important of itself from a financial standpoint, but there lies, underneath it all, the old proposition first debated by Webster and Calhoun, that the constitution goes with the flag into all territory acquired by the United States, and therefore the slaveholder had the right to carry his slaves and to keep them in any and every territory; this was confirmed by the infamous Dred Scott decision, that the United States can acquire territory only for the purpose of forming states, and that all acquisitions must be treated as integral parts of the Union; and afterward the question was debated by Lincoln and Douglas in their celebrated canvass of the state of Illinois just before the war.

"So it will be seen that the issue involved is not new, and is one of the most momentous that has ever been considered by the people of the United States. I believe the republicans of the country will take their stand unitedly with Webster and Lincoln, as against Calhoun and Douglas. It is not important whether a tariff be established between Porto Rico and the United States, but it is all important that the principle which I have suggested should be sustained. Better for a thousand times that Porto Rico, the Philippines, and all our island dependencies should never have been brought into relation with the United States than that the policy should be established that these islands are ultimately to be made into American states.

"I commend to the careful perusal of our people the recent speech made by Secretary Long in Boston, and the speeches made by Governor Shaw of Iowa, which clearly set forth the vast and far-reaching importance of the question."

The relation of the coal trust to the tariff laws—coal being on the free list—is made all the more clear by the fact that dispatches quote coal at $10 a ton in Austria and some of the German schools have been closed for lack of fuel. Exports of American coal to Europe are becoming common. An English syndicate is said to have contracted for 2,000,000 tons of Alabama coal to be forwarded by way of New Orleans. Of course, however, no one will deny that the coal trust is "fostered by the robber tariff."

Another straw: In two years of the Wilson free trade tariff, 1895-96, Europe bought from the United States merchandise worth $1,301,000,000. In the two years, 1898-1899, of the Dingley protective tariff, Europe bought from us to the extent of $1,910,000,000, an increase under protection of $609,000,000 in two years' sales.

Unmarried men cannot hold office in Greece, and bachelors are taxed. Why not try this scheme in Ohio?

HE ADVISES MATRIMONY.

Priest Who Says Young Men Are Too Dumb and Too Stupid to Marry.

A unique campaign is in progress in South Bethlehem, Pa. It is a campaign of marriage. It was started by Rev. Father Philip McEnroe of the Church of the Holy Infancy. Father McEnroe preached a sermon in which he deplored the lack of marriages among the young people of his flock. He further declared that there were 500 young women in his parish and that it was high time the young men were asking them to become wives.

Not only has this sermon aroused much interest among the young bachelors of South Bethlehem, but it has attracted attention in all parts of the country. Father McEnroe has received ed a great many letters from distant bachelors asking him to pick out wives for them. Most of them sent specifications.

Father McEnroe is quite amazed at the wide interest taken in his sermon. "I had no thought when I spoke to the people of my parish that my words would reach so far," says Father McEnroe. "However, now that the newspapers have spread my advice to young men broadcast, I am glad that it is so. I feel in my heart that young men everywhere are too bashful and too timid. They hesitate and hesitate and hesitate instead of coming out strong and asking the girl straight off. I am quite enthusiastic in this matter and determined, now that I have entered on my crusade, to keep it up. When I have married the 500 single young women in my parish to good Catholic husbands, I will be willing to rest and not before. "I may say that I am more than ever encouraged, for I have learned much that gratifies me. About these things I do not care to speak."

SHE HAS AMBITIONS.

president, is a handsome woman who has ambitions herself. Mr. Woodruff is just now lieutenant governor of the state of New York, and Mrs. Woodruff is the social leader of Albany society. She thinks she would like four years or more of Washington society, and it may be that Mr. Woodruff's vice presidential hopes are due in a measure to his wife's social aspirations.

Mrs. Woodruff is one of that rare type of women who are born to be the consorts of great men, who are an incentive for their ambitions, an unconscious guide in the vital moments of their careers, and who advance step by step with their husband's progress. Her maiden name was Miss Cora Eastman, and she was a belle of Poughkeepsie before her marriage to the handsome young statesman who makes his home in Brooklyn and who is the delight of the New York cartoonists because he wears fancy vests of striking pattern.

Mrs. Woodruff recently made a tour of the west with her husband, and she was highly delighted by the many courtesies she received from the women of western cities. She has one son, who is 19 years old and a student at Yale.

PROGRESS OF THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

UNION SERVICES AT THE CON- GREGATIONAL CHURCH.

President Loomis Makes His Report
Showing the Growth of the Association—Treasurer's Report—Messrs.
Anderson and Michener Make Addresses to a Large Audience.

The union Y. M. C. A. services at the Congregational church last night, drew a crowded house. The Y. M. C. A. band furnished the music, Dr. Loomis presided, Rev. Mr. Woodside read a scripture lesson and Rev. Mr. Kempton led in prayer.

Report of President Loomis

Dr. Loomis, president of the association, made the following report: "A conservative estimate of the total daily attendance at the building for the past six months has been 31,500. An average daily attendance of 201, including visitors and members. The reading rooms, social life, baths, gymnasium and all departments of the work shows a considerable increase over last year. Our evening educational classes for young men were begun on a small scale with about forty different persons enrolled. This department we hope to develop during the present year because of the apparent great need.

"Our lecture course was a success in numbers and interest. Total attendance at nine of these entertainments was 3,800, an average attendance of 422; total number of baths for the past six months 3,550, an average of 591 each month.

"Number of men's meetings October 1, '99, to April 1, '00, 25; total number of men present, 2,433; average attendance, 97. Number of bible classes from October 1, '99 to April 1, 1900, 20. Total number men present, 301; average attendance, 15.

"We have at present 327 members, including intermediates and seniors."

Report of the Treasurer

Edward Ruger, chairman of the finance committee, read his report, from which it appears that the estimate of the local budget of receipts and expenses for the year are as follows:

Receipts from membership	$1,523
From rent of rooms	1,400
From Northwestern Ry.	240
From miscellaneous	125
To be raised by subscription	90
Total	$3,378
Expenses for salaries of four men	$2,200
Fuel	300
Light	200
Water	75

The Band Report

The band report was made by O. W. Bucklin and made a fine showing. F. F. Lewis is president, E. B. North treasurer and B. S. Taylor director. The report says:

"A review of the work of the band the coming year convinces one that progress has been made. In an organization of this character the personnel is often changing, old members leaving and new ones coming in; yet by regular practice and close attention to the director's leadership the standard of excellence aimed at in band work has been maintained, and in many respects has advanced.

"As an organization the band is much stronger than it was at the last annual meeting of your boards at that time an indebtedness of about $120.00 was outstanding. We are pleased to state that not only has all indebtedness been practically wiped out but the band holds property in the shape of uniforms, instruments and a plot of ground on the assembly grounds at Delevan Lake.

"This lot they intend to improve by building a cottage thereon and from which an income will be derived by renting same during the summer season."

After the reading of these reports State Secretary Anderson made a brief address outlining this work being done in the state. He was especially enthusiastic over the work in schools, colleges and railroads.

C. C. Michener, international secretary then spoke at length in a forcible and eloquent address. He is business from the word go and he made a good impression upon the audience.

VOLNEY D. ATWOOD PROMOTED

Will Act as Cashier for the American Express Company at Green Bay.

Volney D. Atwood, local billing clerk for the American Express company, has received a well earned promotion as cashier of the American Express company office at Green Bay. The position is one of much responsibility and carries with it a good salary. Numerous local friends will regret much Mr. Atwood's departure from Janesville, but will join in extending to him best wishes in his new position. J. Weber, former agent for the company at Harley, will take Mr. Atwood's place in the Janesville office.

MANY MEN ATTENDED MEET

At the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday Afternoon

At the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon C. C. Michener of Chicago, an international secretary of the Y. M. C. A. led. The Y. M. C. A. band and male quartette furnished the music. There were 250 men in attendance, and the meeting proved most interesting.

Faith builds a bridge from the old world to the new.—Young.

BREAKFAST.
Soft Boiled Eggs. Corn Muffins.
Waffles with Maple Syrup.
Coffee.

LUNCHEON.
Creamed Corned Beef.
Cottage Cheese. Crackers.
Toasted Graham Bread.
Currant Jelly.
Tea with Lemon.

DINNER.
Cream of Bean Soup.
Beef Steak. Dumplings. Squash.
Milk Sweet Pickle.
Snap Bean Salad.
Saltines. Gorgonzola Cheese.
Cafe Noir.

DUMPLINGS.—When an accompaniment to beef stew, they should be of the simplest and lightest texture. To insure success do not mix the butter until it is wanted. To one cupful of lukewarm milk and water (three-quarters of which should be milk) add three cupfuls of sifted flour, two and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder and half a teaspoonful of salt. Flour, baking powder and salt should be sifted together. Mix quickly and lightly. Have a cupful of cold water at hand, and when the dumplings are moistened with the water drop the mixture into the boiling beef stew. Probably a dozen or more dumplings will fit in the pot at once. Cover closely immediately and steam six minutes. The dumplings should be light, dry and firm when properly cooked. Serve at once.

LOWERING OF LAKE CAUSES LAW SUIT

INTERESTING CASE NOW BEFORE CIRCUIT COURT.

Lake Koshkonong Property Owners Sue the Indian Ford Water Power Company—Judge Dick Hears the Action—Several Witnesses Have Been Subpoenied.

Before the Rock county circuit court this afternoon was commenced the legal action of William Taylor and Mrs. Kate Bliven vs. the Indian Ford Water Power Company. The case is being heard by Judge James Dick of Beaver Dam.

The action is a peculiar and most interesting one. The plaintiffs bring suit to obtain an injunction restraining the defendants from drawing water from Lake Koshkonong at leisure. They also sue for damages to hotel property bordering on the lake and known as the Taylor hotel. Mr. Taylor is former owner of the Taylor hotel property and he brings suit for damages done to his property by the rise and the lowering of the water. Mrs. Bliven is the present owner of the property. The Indian Ford Water Power Company is composed of business men residing in Janesville, Beloit and Rockton and who control the water power rights at Indian Ford.

It is alleged that the defendants by the erection of the dam and gates at Indian Ford take water from Lake Koshkonong as needed to benefit their water power rights at Janesville, Beloit and Rockton.

The plaintiffs allege that in the fall of the year when the river is low the defendants draw on the waters of Lake Koshkonong and that by so doing they lower the waters from the shore so that adjoining land is damaged. The plaintiff alleges that they are obliged to erect boat piers far into the lake each summer, and that each fall, with the rise of water, these piers are injured by the ice. They also allege that the lowering of the water makes it unhealthy about the shore.

Several witnesses have been subpoenaed in the case, including Ira Bingham, Will Bentley, A. K. Board, William Taylor and Mrs. Kate Bliven.

Ruger & Ruger and M. J. Jeffris appear for the plaintiffs, and Sutherland & Nolan and Jackson & Jackson for the defendants.

BATES FUNERAL HELD HERE TODAY

REMAINS ARRIVED FROM CHICAGO THIS AFTERNOON.

Were Taken to Oak Hill Cemetery Direct From the Depot—What the Chicago Papers Say—Death of Mrs. Bowerman—Funerals Held Yesterday and Today.

All that was mortal of the late George H. Bates arrived in the city this afternoon at 4 o'clock over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

From the depot the remains were taken direct to Oak Hill cemetery, where services were conducted from the chapel by the Rev. A. C. Kempton of the Baptist church. Numerous local friends were in attendance, and the floral offerings were many. The pall bearers were Millard F. Ide, Henry Tall, Frank Echlin, Joseph Echlin and Peter Chapman. In regard to the death of Mr. Bates the Chicago Chronicle of today prints the following:

"George Bates killed himself Saturday because his employers, G. Merz & Sons, dealers in cigar boxes, told him that they were going to examine his accounts. Some irregularities had been noticed in them, it is said, and his attention was called to the fact. He thereupon stepped into a side room and shot himself through the temple. Bates was thirty-five years old, and lived with his wife at 614 Wells street."

Marie Hamilton

Funeral services over the remains of the late Marie Hamilton will be held from the home tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, the interment to be in the cemetery at Otter Creek.

Patrick Smith

Patrick Smith died Sunday morning at 2:30 o'clock at his home on Washington street. He was fifty years of age. Besides a wife Mr. Smith leaves four children. Funeral service will be held from St. Mary's church Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Caroline C. Riker

Funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Caroline C. Riker will be held from the house Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. W. Woodside of the First M. E. church officiating. The interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Robert Cairns

The remains of the late Robert Cairns arrived in the city Saturday evening. They were taken to the residence of his daughter, Mrs. William Clark, 170 Milton avenue, where funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. R. C. Denison of the Congregational church officiating and the interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

William F. McGill

Funeral of little William Frederick McGill was held from the residence of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGill, Second street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Chas. Bowerman

Mrs. Charles Bowerman died Saturday at midnight at her home, 29 Ruger avenue. For many years Mrs. Bowerman has been a resident of Janesville. She was well known throughout the country and many will mourn her death. She was ill only a few days. Besides a husband she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Fred Spencer, of Stevens Point, Wis.

Mrs. N. C. Bowerman was born December 7, 1824. She was married to Charles Bowerman, Oct. 1854, and has resided in Rock county, since 1844. She has been feeble for about a year but her last illness was brief, she having been confined to her bed only about a week. She leaves to mourn her loss an aged husband, three children, one son and two daughters, also a large circle of relatives and friends. The children are Steven E. Bowerman, Mrs. G. W. Chase, Huron, S. Dakota, and Mrs. F. W. Spencer of this city. The funeral services will be held at the home, 29 Ruger avenue tomorrow (Tuesday) at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. W. Woodside of the First M. E. church. Interment at Edgerton.

Chinese Curio Exhibition.

The young ladies of the Congregational church have in charge a unique entertainment, which will be of the keenest interest to all who enjoy the exquisite work of the Chinese. Both for its intrinsic value and for the glimpse of the civilization of this hermit people, which it so plainly reveals. It needs no vivid imagination to see behind the most perfect embroidery that the world produces a race of women who know nothing of the world they live in except that it brings to the doors, which they never leave, the wonderful silks and satins into which they embroider their lives. That "a nation can rise no higher than its women" is proven in the history of China. The utensils for the different kinds of work, the many idols which preside over every department of life, the crude instruments with which they ply their trades and professions, the costumes, all tell the story of a people who for thousands of years have shut themselves in to the worship of the ancient and have shut out with the death penalty everything that denoted progress.

NAMES OF DAYS.

Have Curious Derivations Which Few People Know.

Last night I was at a stag dinner, where the company at large was asked from what source the days of the week derived their names, and only one man out of the twelve present could answer the question, and he was the man who asked it, and he was one day wrong at that, for I've since looked the matter up. Sunday and Monday are simple enough, and in themselves suggest their derivation from the sun and moon, but with Tuesday we come to the ancient gods of our forefathers, the Engles, that hardy race that displayed the Briton and gave their name to the English people. Tuesday was named for Tiu, their god of death; Wednesday for Odin, Woden or Wotan, who occupies in their mythology a position analogous to that of Jupiter on Mt. Olympus; Thursday for Thor, the god of air and storm and rain; Friday for Freia or Freya, the goddess of peace, and Saturday possibly for Saeter, an obscure god of their mythology, but more probably it takes its name for Saturn. It would seem as though almost any one you would ask would know the derivation of these words of daily use, but I'll wager that not one person out of a hundred can tell them correctly. It's like the surprise the Bible gives one not familiar with it, by the idioms and phrases they will come across when reading its pages, that are familiar and colloquial in the language they use, but which are uttered without the slightest knowledge of whence they came on the part of either speaker or listener.—New York Tribune.

MILWAUKEE ROAD'S EXTENSIVE YARDS

TWELVE ACRES SURVEYED IN CITY LIMITS.

Land Embraces Snipe Hill—Surveyors Have Been at Work During the Past Week—Company Owns the Land—Would Give Room for Several Thousand Freight Cars.

Freight yards to embrace twelve acres of land within the city limits are now planned by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company. The proposed yards embrace the territory known as Snipe Hill. These twelve acres are owned by the railroad company and are located bordering on the Milwaukee road track of the Mineral Point division.

Surveyors have been busily engaged on this territory during the past few days. For several years past the Milwaukee railway company have been hampered in this city by small freight yards. Freight business along the Mineral Point division of the road has more than doubled during the past year. Considerable live stock is shipped by the company from western states coming through to Chicago via Janesville. More tracks are needed by the company in Janesville and to fill a long felt want the company now proposes to utilize the twelve acres embracing the territory bordering on Gold street and known as Snipe Hill. Considerable grading would be necessary on this property as the land lies several feet above track grade.

When the Milwaukee road officers were recently in the city they spent considerable time looking over the land where it is now proposed to erect the new freight yards. Milwaukee road surveyors will make this city their headquarters for some time having rented quarters in the Hayes block.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

New Rules of Precedence In Washington Official Society.

NOTED OPPONENTS OF EXERCISE.

Both Mr. Evans and Senator Hanna Take Very Little Physical Exercise—Cigarette Ban Worries Uncle Sam's Weather Bureau Clerks, United States Senate Chinese Club.

The bitter fight as to social precedence in Washington bids fair for settlement, and the round of social festivals will be begun next season under simple rules, says the New York World's correspondent. The necessity of adjudicating the claims of the speaker of the house and the president of the senate has compelled the promulgation of a new order of precedence.

The new rules will take as the basic principle the triple co-ordination of the powers of government. The president, as the executive, will of course be first, and it has been decided that his only deputy or successor is the vice president. The honors and precedence due to the secretary of state in the event of the vacancy in the vice presidency and his statutory succession to the helmship to the chief magistracy.

Therefore the president and vice president constitute the executive branch. The chief justice will represent the judiciary. The legislative branch of the government will be represented by the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house in the order named. In the event of the death or incapacity of the vice president making his office vacant the president of the senate will succeed to no status larger than that of the president pro tempore of that body. These five men will therefore represent the republic of the United States. The cabinet has been relegated to a ministerial capacity.

The point which will cause friction is that the judiciary and the congress, as represented by their ministerial officers, will take precedence of the ambassadors. It was only after a sturdy social campaign that Lord Pauncefoot consented to yield rank to Vice President Hobart. The new order will not be inaugurated without resistance by these gentlemen. The ambassadors hold that this rule will violate all international customs.

A story is going the rounds that when William M. Evans was asked the other day to what he ascribed his long life and excellent health he replied, "I don't know unless it is because I don't take any exercise." This has been taken as one of Mr. Evans' jokes. Those who know the venerable gentleman best recognize the answer as absolutely true, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat's Washington representative. Mr. Evans takes no exercise. He has carefully avoided exercise for many years. When he went from his home to his office, he would not walk a block. He would take a carriage, no matter how short the distance.

Mr. Evans isn't the only public man who has a theory that physical exercise, added to mental effort, is a waste of tissue which tends toward debility and shortening of life. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain is a conspicuous example. He spares himself all physical effort so far as he can. He will not walk up a single flight of stairs if he can help it. Senator Hanna is perhaps the most notable exponent of this practice in Washington. Vigorous as he is in speech and in mental effort, the senator is seldom seen save in an attitude which suggests physical repose. The president walks daily. He feels badly without his constitutional. He strides with the movement of a man to whom the exercise is keen enjoyment. Usually he is accompanied by some one who may be at the White House when he starts. Nobody can remember to have seen Senator Hanna accompanying the president on a walk in the three years at Washington.

The chief of Chief Willis L. Moore of the weather bureau prohibiting the smoking of cigarettes by the clerks in his department has brought consternation to the government clerks in general, who fear that his example will be followed by others and that cigarette smoking will be prohibited in all the government departments, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Mail and Express. Mr. Moore has declared that not only shall cigarette smoking cease among the clerks in his bureau, but that hereafter no one who smokes cigarettes shall be appointed to any place in his bureau. In giving his reasons for this order Mr. Moore states that investigations have proved that cigarette smoking has been the cause of many of the complaints against the clerks, for investigation of neglect of their duty has shown that the clerks thus complained of were cigarette smokers and that the continued habit had made them lax and careless in their duty.

A branch of the famous Seventy-six Million club has been formed in the United States senate, says the New York World's Washington correspondent. The club was organized in China by some Americans and has few American branches. Its constitution is as follows:

First—Any American citizen can become a member of this club. Second—No member of this club can take a drink except when a quorum of the club is present. Third—Two members of the club shall constitute a quorum. Fourth—No mirrors or other mechan-

Kid-ne-oids does its work easily and naturally, contains no dangerous drugs, and best of all, they cure, too. Enough for about a week's treatment.

Morrow's Liver-Lax Cures Constipation, Catarrh, Biliousness and Rheumatism.

TRY THIS. Healthy urine is clear, and does not stain. Put some in a glass and let it stand 24 hours. If there is a sediment at the bottom, get Kid-ne-oids at once. It means your kidneys are affected. Write for booklet for the asking.

Mrs. F. L. Kimball, 160 Linn street, says:

"I have been a sufferer from kidney troubles for the past two years. I could not sleep on account of nervousness. I had pain in the back, shaking and dizzy spells and suffered a great deal from a nervous headache and rheumatism. I was treated by doctors, but they gave me only temporary relief. By using Morrow's Kid-ne-oids for three days I have been greatly relieved of all my troubles."

Life Boat Found Adrift.

Seattle, Wash., April 9.—The fishing steamer Edith, arriving from the halibut fishing banks at Wrangell Narrows, Alaska, reports having picked up a life boat marked "Dominion, Sydney," on March 30. The British bark Dominion sailed from Tacoma March 4 for Sydney, N. S. W., with a cargo of lumber. She had been twice condemned and sold, but has each time re-entered the merchant marine. Shipping men are divided as to the significance of the finding of the lifeboat. There is much speculation as to whether the Dominion has suffered disaster or whether the lifeboat was washed overboard in a storm.

Headquarters at Hong Kong.

San Francisco, April 9.—The squadron of the United States navy recently formed in Chinese waters is to have its headquarters at Hong Kong. For some time it was thought that the war vessels dispatched to Hong Kong from Manila and San Francisco were on temporary duty and were to be returned soon, but such is now known not to be a fact. D. A. Smith, pay director in the navy, and W. M. Long, a pay clerk, have arrived here on their way to Hong Kong, where they will report for duty.

Would Exclude the Japanese.

San Francisco, Cal., April 9.—The San Francisco labor council has declared against any amendment of the Chinese exclusion act that will make it less stringent than at present. They also urge congress to re-enact this law at the proper time, with amendments which will prevent its evasion. Congress is also asked to immediately pass a law for the total and perpetual exclusion from the United States of all Japanese other than those accredited by their government on its diplomatic staff.

Street Railway Strike at Chicago.

Chicago, April 9.—The strike among the power house employees of the Chicago City Railway company, which crippled the service of the entire South side system and compelled thousands of persons to walk home from work, is still in effect. The places of the engineers, firemen and dynamo men have been partly filled by men whom the company officials acknowledge are inexperienced, and more serious results are expected.

Ashanti Situation Serious.

Accra, British Gold Coast Colony, April 9.—The situation in Ashanti is unchanged. A Coomassie runner reports that all the Ashanti tribes are in arms, the king of Bekwai alone remaining loyal. It is believed that the Ashanti golden stool has been found and that the rising is due to the endeavor of the governor of the colony, Sir Frederic Mitchell Hodgson, to take possession of it.

Uruguay's Treaty With England.

Montevideo, April 9.—The government has decreed the renewal of the temporary treaty of commerce with England arranged in July last. The government is anxious for the removal of the prohibition against the introduction of Uruguayan cattle into England. There is, it is claimed, no disease among cattle in the country.

He Is Wanted in Wisconsin.

Spokane, Wash., April 9.—L. P. Hunner, wanted in Buffalo county, Wisconsin, for embezzling $150,000, was arrested in Republic by a deputy sheriff from Wisconsin. Little can be learned here of Hunner's alleged crime. It is said he was president of a bank.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Furious Accident to a Farmer.

Carlyle, Ill., April 9.—Joseph Schaffer, a farmer living a few miles from town, started to drive to Carlyle with a big load of hay. Friction from the contact of a wheel tire with an iron fender above it produced a spark, which ignited the overhanging hay. The huge mass burst into sudden flames and Schaffer, with beard and eyebrows singed and fire-covered clothing, barely had time to topple from his seat amid the hay and save his life. Then he desperately cut the traces and released his frightened horses, which were plunging madly, just as the entire wagon and its inflammable burden became a pyramid of fire.

MacArthur to Succeed Otis.

Washington, April 9.—Gen. Elwell S. Otis having been formally relieved of command of the troops in the Philippines, Gen. MacArthur will succeed him in the direction of affairs in the new possessions. From the text of the correspondence made public by the war department all idea of Gen. Otis returning to Manila is abandoned, and Gen. MacArthur is to be the military governor.

Miners Go on a Strike.

Houghton, Mich., April 9.—One hundred miners at Franklin Junior mine, seven miles north of Houghton, have struck for an increase of 10 per cent in wages. On April 1 the management gave practically 5 per cent increase to laborers and trammers, but did not advance miners' wages. The miners on company account are now getting $54 per month.

Two Sentenced to Die.

Berlin, April 9.—Contrary to popular expectations the trial of Goenzel and his wife, the Hungarians who in August, 1897, murdered the wealthy widow and daughter of Herr Schulze, the multimillionaire of this city, was concluded promptly. The accused were sentenced to death.

Big Fire in Pittsburg, Pa.

Charged with Big Burglaries.

Montreal, Quebec, April 9.—Evangeline Joly, painter and decorator, was arrested here charged with being the author of three mysterious burglaries committed at the station of the Canadian Pacific railway at Joliette, Quebec.

The first burglary took place in 1896, when $5,000 was taken from the safe. A year later $3,500 was stolen and the station burned. In August, 1899, the station was robbed a third time and $7,000 was stolen.

Gorman Will Not Enter Struggle.

Baltimore, Md., April 9.—It has until now been the consensus of opinion that ex-Senator Gorman and Senator McComas would be found in the thick of the fight, assisting their respective parties in the national campaign, but it can be announced authoritatively that while Mr. McComas is as deeply interested as ever, ex-Senator Gorman will take no part whatever in the impending struggle.

DEFENDER OF MAFKING

Interesting Characteristics of Colonel Baden-Powell.

MUCH RESPECTED BY THE BOERS.

They Say He Can Give Them Points at Their Method of Fighting—An Example of His Resource and Readiness of Stratagem—His Indian Nickname.

The popular hero among the officers and generals commanding forces in the present campaign is Colonel Baden-Powell, appointed in May, 1897, brevet colonel of the Fifth Dragoon guards, but at present on special service in South Africa, says Alexander Davis in the London Navy and Army Illustrated. Before hostilities had begun, but when the present conflict appeared imminent, the war office felt the need of sending out an efficient and experienced officer to superintend the border defenses of Rhodesia and Bechuanaland, a stretch of frontier about 500 miles in extent. Under the most favorable circumstances it was scarcely feasible to properly garrison all these outposts with imperial troops in time to forestall Boer incursions. If reverses were met with, it was readily conceded that the task would be insuperable, which has unfortunately proved the case. In casting around for a suitable man the claims of Colonel Baden-Powell to the post were found incontestable. A man of restless energy, wary and experienced, his past record spoke eloquently in his favor, and he was appointed.

His subordinates were doubtlessly of his own choosing. Colonel Plumer and Major Vyvyan were both old comrades in the Matabele rebellion and were at home in the districts destined for operations. It is a moot point today, as matters have developed, whether the services of Colonel Baden-Powell would not have been more valuable in the line of advance than on the defensive. The work entrusted to him has been done well—in fact, with the paucity of material to work with, remarkably well—but Baden-Powell in command of the scouts in White's, Buller's or Methuen's forces might possibly have spelled success where failure resulted. Most of our reverses have been set down to insufficient knowledge of the enemy's dispositions and to the superior craft of the Boers in the veldt. Baden-Powell is up to all their tricks and can give them points too.

The earliest reverse that has been recorded in the present campaign was the destruction of an armored train between Vryburg and Mafeking, with the loss of a gun, ammunition and most of the men. The arms were destined for Baden-Powell, but fell into the hands of the Boers instead. This was a bit of a blow, but Baden-Powell took it very coolly and doubtless came to the conclusion that as they were so fond of shelling trucks he would allow them some further practice. Having some superfluous dynamite in the stores, he sent a couple of trucks loaded with the explosive down the line and waited for developments. The Boers, elated with their recent success, pounded merrily away, and, receiving no response, rushed the deserted wagons. The tableau when the slow blow up can be left to imagination. The Boers from that time came to respect him. "Here," said they, "is a man who knows a thing or two, and we must be careful." They have been cautious ever since, with the result that the initiative in most of the fighting has been taken by the colonel; the Boers have been looking on from the distance, simply shelling the town at long range.

Circumstances brought the writer of this article much into contact with the gallant colonel during the Matabele rebellion. He was then acting as chief of staff to General Sir Frederick Carrington. The one quality prominent in Baden-Powell, contrasting somewhat with the average officer, is the manner in which he carries out his military duties. Dressed in the plain khaki uniform and slouched hat of South African warfare, there is nothing starchy or imposing in his appearance or demeanor. He has neither a poker down his back, padding in his shoulders, nor a forbidding or condescending air in intercourse. He is simply quite natural and generally smiling. In conversation you forget the military man, and only see the shrewd man of the world and courteous gentleman.

At the time when many deserved and undeserved sarcasms were uttered against most of the staff by the civilian population Baden-Powell—the little that was seen of him in camp—always met with praise. Did he wish something done or whatever dealings he may have had with the storekeepers, he always arranged matters with the maximum of pleasantness and the minimum of military stiffness or sense of command. Now this is a very important trait in a commanding officer during time of war. It means the whole-hearted aid of civilians and an alacrity in providing for the forces which tact alone can bring forth. We have ample evidence that in Mafeking Baden-Powell has the whole population of the place following him implicitly, even to death. The power of command alone will not insure this. A military leader requires other qualities than bravery and a knowledge of tactics and strategy to become a successful general. All the subordinate qualities required of a military leader Colonel Baden-Powell possesses. His intellectual and artistic abilities are well known. His books on the Ashanti campaign, on Matabeleland and on scouting are standard works in military circles. Accompanying these are sketches from his own pen.

Though very highly gifted in many directions, the gallant colonel is modesty itself. During the Matabele campaign, as chief of the staff and the intelligence department, Colonel Baden-Powell was responsible for most of the military maps of the little known and difficult country occupied by the enemy. On one occasion, after some days and nights of reconnoitering sometimes alone and sometimes accompanied by an orderly, he had a rough map prepared of that part of the Mafeking hills selected for the next operations. He sent for the local lithographer and asked him if he could lithograph a few for the use of the troops. The task was accepted and the suggestion made that from Baden-Powell's rough plan a finished sketch could be executed by a local artist, an adept in such work. The colonel smilingly replied: "Thanks. I'll just line it off myself roughly if you will supply me with the transfer paper." When the sketch was ready, the lithographer looked very small indeed, for the talented colonel had sketched it in as only an adept could do it.

As has been elsewhere remarked, Colonel Baden-Powell's Kaffir name is "Impeesi," which has been rather incorrectly taken to mean "He who scouts in the night." The literal meaning of this native word is hyena, or wolf. It is also applied to those who are in the habit of taking solitary walks after dark. Baden-Powell, in the execution of his duties, leaves very little to chance or to information brought in by others. Like a true commander, in matters of importance he verifies all intelligence by personal observation. When operating in an unknown or enemy's country, what a number of disasters have occurred through either false or incorrect data! In this wise almost all our recent defeats and reverses have occurred. It is highly probable that, under Colonel Baden-Powell's command, such reverses would have been met with. He may be defeated by superior strength or by cleverer strategy, but by surprise or by tactics he would be a difficult one to catch.

It has been said in South African circles, from information derived from Boer sources, that the Boers have no intention to take Mafeking. The reason given is that Baden-Powell looked up in Mafeking is worth a little army to the Boers, for should he escape and be employed against them with the main columns their superiority in the veldt will disappear. They say that he is the first roof-battle they have met who can fight in their fashion and give them points at it. In the Matabele campaign he had many Afrikaners in the forces under him, and to a man they admired his "slimness" and nerve.

As a concluding example of his resource and readiness of stratagem, only recently at Mafeking he found the Boers very restive owing to his periodical sallies and unexpected attacks. The least movement discerned in the direction of the defenses was construed by the Boers into a sally in force. To profit by this nervousness and cause the Boers to waste their ammunition and expose the position of their trenches he provided an endless rope running on a pulley affixed to a post some distance out toward the enemy's position. On this rope he fastened lanterns and in the dead of night started the rope on the move. To the watchful foe it looked for all the world as if the enemy was stealthily approaching, as the lights appeared to be moving in their direction. A fierce fusillade from all points followed, aimed in the direction of the expected attack, and was continued intermittently throughout the night. One can well imagine the resourceful Baden-Powell chuckling in quiet glee with his friend Lord Edward Cecil at the Boers' frantic alarm, for we have chuckled over it much at home.

Always wide awake, with an iron constitution contained in rather a slight frame, Baden-Powell has by pluck, resource, tact and determination kept the foe at bay, though occupying a spot which by no aid of the imagination could be deemed moderately capable of defense. Mafeking lies in the open veldt, in the midst of a population mainly consisting of natives of doubtful loyalty and Boers of undoubted enmity. Yet by the splendid efforts of this comparatively young but really brilliant officer, at the head of a mixed force of colonists, the town bravely holds out, has accounted for a considerable number of the enemy and will probably continue its glorious defense until downright starvation or sheer exhaustion shall perform what a large army of Boers under a wily general could not effect.

Cucumber Farming on a Big Scale.
Kansas is to have a cucumber farm on a large scale. The promoters of the project are negotiating for a tract of 1,100 acres near Lawrence, on the line of a proposed electric railroad, says the New York Tribune. The cucumber crop matures just as the school term ends, when pickers may be easily secured.

The Wounded "Tommy's" Angel.
There's lots of things a fellow feels as can't be said outright. Although he makes his mind up in the watches of the night, And so I guess I'll put it plainly down in black and white. That you have been an angel to me, nurse. I well remember even now how I was carried in— A Manger bullet in my side, a gasp across my chest. I didn't do much howlin', but you bet, it hurt like sin. Until you came and stopped the pain, nurse. And when my wounds were throbbin' so I didn't care a rap. If Brudder's Jannies came along and wiped me off the map. A sudden something seemed to make me feel another chap. For you were like a glimpse of heaven, nurse. And, though you never gave a hint of what you thought or felt. I see a little portrait, once a-stickin' in your belt. And guessed that you had some one fightin' there across the veldt. So I kept him safe and bring him to you, nurse— (Kebble Howard in New York Tribune.)

Legal Fight Over a Child.
New York, April 9.—Centering about a bright boy of 5 years, who will arrive in America Wednesday on the Lahn, after having made the long ocean voyage from Germany with only the stewardess to look after him, is a story of great human interest. The lad is known as Conrad Benjamin Fecker. Through counsel Mrs. Fecker says she will apply to the Supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus to recover Conrad, who was placed on the Lahn with directions that he be delivered to her husband, Charles Conrad Fecker. Mrs. Fecker declares little Conrad is her son by a marriage with a Dr. Hamilton of Chicago. She says that she is the daughter of ex-Mayor Joseph Stringham of Oshkosh, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Fecker were married in San Francisco June 24, 1893. Two months later Fecker was shot through the right shoulder by Miss Evelyn Holt of Los Angeles, to whom he is said to have been at one time engaged.

Universities Make Agnostics.
Kansas City, Mo., April 9.—"Universities of today lead to agnosticism," declared Archbishop Keene at the Cathedral before an audience that packed the edifice. The archbishop is here in the interests of the new Catholic university at Washington, which, he said, would differ much from other universities. "A man there," he said, "will be taught the sciences and the arts, taught everything that makes up a liberal education, but with it all he will be permitted and encouraged to retain his faith in God. Universities of today lead to agnosticism. I was visiting Cambridge, England, not a great while ago and a professor told me there that young men entered with the faith of their fathers. The second year they cared little for any faith and the third year they were rampant agnostics. That is dreadful, but it is true."

MANY PEOPLE CATCH COLD.

Slight Causes Often Produce Serious Results to Men's Health.

The various ways in which a cold may be brought on are thus described by Dr. J. H. Kellogg: "A little knife blade of air blowing in through a crack in a window upon some part of the body will chill that part and the blood vessels of that region will become contracted, affecting somewhere in the interior of the body an area in reflex relation with this portion of the surface of the body. For instance, the blood vessels of the skin of the top of the shoulders and the chest are associated with the blood vessels of the lungs, so that whatever happens to the blood vessels of the skin of the shoulders and chest happens also to the blood vessels of the lungs. If there is a contraction of the blood vessels of the back of the neck there will be a contraction of the blood vessels of the nose and throat, and if there is a contraction of the blood vessels of the top of the shoulders and the shoulder blades, there will also be a contraction of the blood vessels of the lungs. When the influence of the cold is continued this contraction is followed by congestion. When one puts his hands into cold water, for a few minutes they are first pale and then red. This is reaction. The longer the application and the more intense the degree of cold the greater will be the contraction and the congestion. So if the back of the neck is exposed for a long time to the influence of cold one is likely to have a cold in the nose and throat; if the shoulder blades and the tops of the shoulders are exposed one is likely to take cold in the lungs and suffer from congestion of the lungs. If the cold is long continued it may cause not only a congestion but an inflammation of the nose or lungs. So if the bottoms of the feet become wet or chilled a weakness of the bladder may result if there has ever been a trouble there, or a weakness of the stomach if there has been catarrh of that organ."

Wons Him With Sweetmeats.

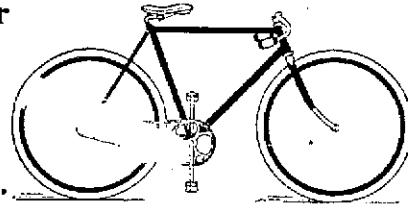

There is a sweet simplicity about the marriage rites of Burmah. It devolves upon the woman to do the courting. When a maiden sees a youth who she thinks would make a desirable husband she forthwith offers him a stick of sweetmeat. If he accepts her proposal he at once eats her offering of affection, and from that moment she is his wife. No further ceremony is necessary, and witnesses to the contract are not required. It is in the act of eating that this primitive marriage rite consists, says the Baltimore Herald. Supposing that the youth declines the offer of the marriage, he does so by assuring the girl that the sweetmeat is not to his taste, and the maiden knows that she must seek elsewhere for someone who will appreciate the love which her offering betokens.

Two Days' Sale New Kitchen Ware,

Saturday and Monday, at Lanphier's.

An entire new line of Copenhagen and Dresden Enamel Kitchen Ware has just been received by us direct from the factory, bought at the very bottom of all figures, and for two days, Saturday and Monday, will be sold at less than the jobbers wholesale the goods.

20 per cent. off

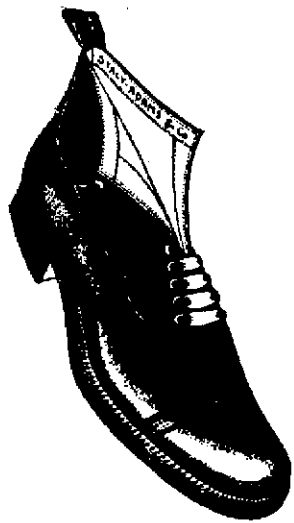

the regular prices for these days only. The ware is the handsomest ever brought out for Janesville people—triple coat, mottled blue and white outside and pure white inside; comes in Tea Kettles, Coffee and Tea Pots, Pans, Kettles, Dishes, in fact, everything, and will cost you but little more than tinware for the two days. 20 per cent off on all tinware these two days also. Our regular 10 per cent discount and Trading Stamps on all goods not sold as special. Don't forget these points.

See the display in the windows.

Good shoes and Money

Are two things that talk. We have the Shoes and you have the money.

Our Easter Shoe Sale

is a grand success and if you have not yet purchased your Easter Shoes do so at once. Our window shows you some of the beautiful styles that we are showing this spring, and

The Prices are very low.

Remember, wholesale prices have taken a great advance, but our Shoes were all purchased before the raise, so we are able to save many dollars to our customers.

Tan Color or Automobile Red are very popular colors, and you are strictly in it when you buy the right sort. We have them, all sizes and colors. Drop in and see us. Your dollars will stretch like rubber here.
